

Paweł Bagiński

Paweł Bagiński

PhD student

Kontakt

p.baginski3@uw.edu.pl

A PhD candidate at the Doctoral School of Humanities, University of Warsaw, and a junior researcher in the project "National Habitus Formation and the Process of Civilization in Poland After 1989: A Figural Approach" funded by the Polish National Science Centre. His dissertation focuses on Polish media discourse from the 1990s and 2000s on sexual harassment in the workplace. Bagiński has been a visiting PhD researcher at the Gender Studies Department of Central European University in Vienna and a recipient of the Dianne Widzinski Visiting Fellowship at the University of Michigan. He holds a BA in sociology and an MA in cultural studies from the College of Interdisciplinary Individual Studies in Humanities and Social Sciences at the University of Warsaw. His scholarly interests encompass gender, violence, work, affect, and postsocialism/neoliberalism in Poland.

Supervisors: Prof. Agnieszka Kościńska, Prof. Marta Bucholc (Faculty of Sociology, University of Warsaw)

Obszary zainteresowa?

sociology and anthropology of culture, anthropological history, gender studies, violence, work, theories of affect, post-socialism/neoliberalism

Publikacje

Access at Academia.edu [1]:

- _____

Na skróty

- Dyżury
- Katalog biblioteki

- _____
- _____

Projekty badawcze

Research team member in the research group "National Habitus Formation and The Process of Civilization in Poland After 1989: A Figural Approach", PI: Prof. Marta Bucholc, Polish National Science Center SONATA BIS

Co-organizer of the Research Group on Modernization and Social Transformations at the Faculty of Sociology, University of Warsaw

Konferencje, seminaria, wykłady gościnne

Selection:

- "Post-socialist affectivity? Preliminary remarks on post-socialism in Poland as the modification of the normative order of affect control in the sphere of gender relations", Workshop "Moving Away from 'Post-socialism': Reconceptualizing Scholarly Approaches to Contemporary Eastern Europe and Eurasia through Feminist and Queer Theory Lenses", Central European University, Budapest, 23-25 September 2022.
- "Being a Woman in Poland in 1990 is Not Much Fun." Women's Timing of the Postsocialist Transition in Poland", Long-term processes in human history, Norbert Elias Foundation and the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences in Amsterdam, March 2022.
- "The Critical Inquiry into Social Constructivist Approach in Sociology of Masculinities. Toward Material-Discursive Analysis of Men and Masculinity", 17th Polish Sociological Congress in Wrocław, September 2019.

Adres URL źródła: <https://www.etnologia.uw.edu.pl/node/6082>

Odniesienia

[1] <http://uw.academia.edu/PawelBaginski>